

Defying Limits, Inspiring Victories

Zach Gowen lost his leg to cancer at the age of eight. He never lost sight of his dream to be a pro-wrestler. He overcame stereotypes to sign with the WWE and to this day, is the ONLY wrestler who is also an amputee. Zach now spends much of his time touring the world as an inspirational speaker for children with all kinds of disabilities, showing them and their families that NOTHING is impossible. Learn more about Zach's journey at: <https://coolspeak.com/youth-motivational-speakers/zach-gowen/> and the many videos available on You Tube.

Zach is coming to Kansas City to inspire children and adults with any sort of disability or special challenge and their families that NOTHING is impossible! The event is FREE but, you must register in advance, seating is limited. Please note on your registration if you and/or your child need any accommodations. A parent, guardian, or responsible adult must remain at all times with anyone under the age of 18. For questions, please contact Dr. Jennifer L'Heureux at 816-482-5775 or Jennifer.LHeureux@dmh.mo.gov
